Michigan Chamber endorses candidates in two State House special elections

(Lansing, Mich.) – The Michigan Chamber of Commerce today announced its Chamber PAC endorsements of Steven Gilbert and Sylvia Grot for the special elections in the 74th and 36th Michigan House districts, respectively. The special elections are scheduled for March 1 (primary election) and May 3 (general election).

“The Michigan Chamber is proud to endorse these well-qualified candidates,” said Wendy Block, Vice President of Business Advocacy and Member Engagement for the Michigan Chamber. “They each bring their own unique experience to the table and will be strong pro-business voices in the halls of the state Capitol.”

The Michigan Chamber plays an active role in helping shape Michigan’s future by supporting pro-jobs, pro-growth candidates who have the ability to win and courage to govern. The process includes a detailed evaluation of candidates on key issues important to our members and advancing a strong, thriving economy.

The Michigan Chamber is a statewide business organization representing thousands of employers of all types and sizes, trade associations and local chambers of commerce from across all 83 counties in the state. The Chamber was established in 1959 to be an advocate for Michigan job providers in the legislative, political and legal process.
