Michigan Chamber announces endorsements for Congressional candidates, Michigan Supreme Court

(LANSING, Mich.) – The Michigan Chamber of Commerce today announced its backing of incumbent justice Brian Zahra and candidate Paul Hudson for the Michigan Supreme Court and also endorsed candidates for 10 of Michigan’s Congressional seats.

“Justice Zahra and Paul Hudson are committed to the rule of the law and a fair, impartial court system that works for all and provides a stable, predictable legal climate that’s crucial to Michigan’s job providers and economic competitiveness,” said President & CEO Jim Holcomb. “We are proud to endorse them and recommend them to Michigan voters.”

The Chamber also endorsed 10 candidates – eight Republicans and two Democrats – in the following Congressional races to the U.S. House of Representatives:

- 1st CD – Congressman Jack Bergman (R)
- 2nd CD – Congressman John Moolenaar (R)
- 3rd CD – Congressman Peter Meijer (R)
- 4th CD – Congressman Bill Huizenga (R)
- 5th CD – Congressman Tim Wahlberg (R)
- 7th CD – Candidate and current State Sen. Tom Barrett (R)
- 9th CD – Congresswoman Lisa McLain (R)
- 10th CD – Candidate and businessman John James (R)
- 11th CD – Congresswoman Haley Stevens (D)
- 13th CD – Candidate and current State Sen. Adam Hollier (D)

“These candidates have shown themselves to be committed to Michigan’s job providers and the employees, families and communities they serve,” said Wendy Block, VP of Business Advocacy and Member Engagement. “Now, more than ever, we need strong leaders in Washington, DC, who will work hard to address our economic challenges and advance our job growth opportunities.”

The Michigan Chamber will be making additional endorsements in the coming days.
