Michigan Chamber announces 2024 Congressional, Court of Appeals endorsements

(LANSING, Mich.) – The Michigan Chamber of Commerce today announced its backing of seven candidates for the U.S. House and Matthew Ackerman for the Michigan Court of Appeals, 2nd District.

Congressional Races

The Chamber issued endorsements in the following Congressional races to the U.S. House of Representatives:

- 1st CD – Congressman Jack Bergman (R)
- 2nd CD – Congressman John Moolenaar (R)
- 4th CD – Congressman Bill Huizenga (R)
- 5th CD – Congressman Tim Walberg (R)
- 7th CD – Candidate Tom Barrett (R)
- 9th CD – Congresswoman Lisa McClain (R)
- 10th CD – Congressman John James (R)

“These candidates have shown themselves to be committed to Michigan’s job providers and the employees, families and communities they serve,” said Wendy Block, senior VP of business advocacy. “Now, more than ever, we need strong leaders in Washington, D.C., who will work hard to address our economic challenges and advance job growth opportunities.”

Court of Appeals

“Matthew Ackerman is highly qualified attorney and the Michigan Chamber is proud to support him,” said President & CEO Jim Holcomb. “Matthew will make an excellent judge because he is committed to the rule of the law and a fair, impartial court system that works for all.”

Holcomb added that Ackerman would help provide a stable, predictable legal climate that is crucial to Michigan’s job providers and economic competitiveness.
