

Michigan Chamber announces additional 2026 endorsements for statewide and congressional offices

(LANSING, Mich. – June 12, 2026) – The Michigan Chamber today announced additional endorsements in several statewide and congressional races as part of its 2026 election efforts, backing candidates who have demonstrated a commitment to policies that strengthen Michigan's economy, support job creation and promote a competitive business climate.

The Michigan Chamber PAC Board endorsed the following candidates:

Statewide Offices

- Doug Lloyd, MI Attorney General
- Anthony Forlini, MI Secretary of State
- Hon. Michael Warren, MI Supreme Court

Congressional Offices

- 1st Congressional District – Jack Bergman
- 2nd Congressional District – John Moolenaar
- 3rd Congressional District – Terri DeBoer
- 4th Congressional District – Bill Huizenga
- 5th Congressional District – Tim Walberg
- 7th Congressional District – Tom Barrett
- 9th Congressional District – Lisa McClain
- 10th Congressional District – Michael Bouchard

“Michigan's future counts on elected leaders who understand what it takes to keep our state competitive and create opportunity for employers, workers and communities alike,” said Jim Holcomb, president and CEO of the Michigan Chamber. “These candidates have demonstrated a willingness to engage thoughtfully on the issues facing Michigan and our businesses and to pursue practical solutions that support long-term economic growth and prosperity.”

The Michigan Chamber PAC Board is composed of member employers representing businesses of all sizes, industries and regions across Michigan. Candidates are evaluated through a combination of personal interviews, voting records, policy positions and demonstrated support for issues important to Michigan's job providers.

The Chamber's endorsement process focuses on issues rather than political labels, emphasizing candidates' understanding of the challenges and opportunities facing Michigan employers and the state's competitiveness. Ultimately, the goal is to support pragmatic problem solvers committed to working collaboratively to advance policies that strengthen Michigan's economy and quality of life.

Additional endorsements will be considered and announced following the August 2026 primary election.
