Chamber also adds Pamela Hornberger to 2026 State House endorsements

(LANSING, Mich. – Sept. 23, 2026) – The Michigan Chamber of Commerce today announced its endorsement of Mike Rogers for U.S. Senate, backing the former congressman to represent the Great Lakes State in Washington, D.C.

“Michigan is a state with a unique set of interests that demand a strong voice in Washington,” said Michigan Chamber President & CEO Jim Holcomb. “Mike Rogers understands what’s at stake for Michigan employers and brings the experience to navigate complex issues, work across the aisle and deliver results. We’re proud to endorse Mike and believe he will be a strong, effective advocate for Michigan businesses, workers and communities in the U.S. Senate.”

A Livingston County native, Rogers has served Michigan and the country in roles spanning the public and private sectors. He served as an officer in the U.S. Army and an FBI special agent before serving in the Michigan Senate and seven terms in Congress, including as chairman of the House Intelligence Committee. Since leaving Congress, Rogers has also worked in the private sector, including in technology, cybersecurity and national security.

Holcomb noted that breadth of experience will be critical as decisions in Washington continue to have significant implications for Michigan – from manufacturing, trade and energy to taxes, regulation, workforce and national security.
